Why shouldst thou lady, blush to hear, Why should I think it wrong to say How near in pure regard thou art To the best feelings of my heart?

And yet my inmost thoughts of thee The sinless eye of God might see: Nor would it dim one ray of light That shines around the eternal throne, If of the angels the most bright Such thoughts of mortal-kind should own

A sister's love I ne'er have known, But it has ever seem'd to be Like that regard which thou hast shown,

The same in weal or woe for me. No were I worthy to be blest With friendship so sincere and true

Unless my very soul confess'd Esteem as pure, as sinless too.

THE MEXICAN GIRL .- There has been con siderable talk in the city, says the Pittsburgh Post, about the young woman brought from Mex ico by the Duquesna Grays. She was first noticed by the members of the company at Puebla. She attracted their attention by her devotion to sledge hammers and moulds, for sale by the sick soldiers. She lurnished provisions to 4 J. D. PERRY, Glasgow. the sick soldiers. She furnished provisions to the Americans and did everything her strength and circumstances enabled her to do. Her con-duct excited the enmity of her relatives, and she feared she might not be safe at home; which being known to Captain Herron and Lieut, Mann, she was invited to accept the protection of the company, and has been "in the ranks" ever since. She is now at East Liberty, whither she was taken by Mr. Winebiddle. In appearance she is entirely Mexican; quite femining in manners and conversation, and the soldiers say she is pretty and intelligent. She is only eighteen years of ege. Her name is Trinidad

Last summer I was taken with a most distress ng cough, and about the first of July my lungs vere so diseased that I bled, in a short time several quarts of blood, which reduced me so low that all my friends and even my physicians, thought I must soon die with consumption. My brother, however, soon heard of the wonderful cures made by this medicine, and procured a bottle, and before had taken one half a bottle, it seemed to go to y business as well as ever. I feel very thankful to the inventor of this medicine, for if it had not been for some all-powerful medicine to have raised the matter and phiegm, and healed my lungs, I should, without doubt, nov
